KEY FINDINGS

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Workforce Trends

Workforce grew during the pandemic, but mostly among contract and seasonal workers.

The LHD workforce grew by 19% between 2019 and 2022, fueled by a 175% increase in contractual employees.

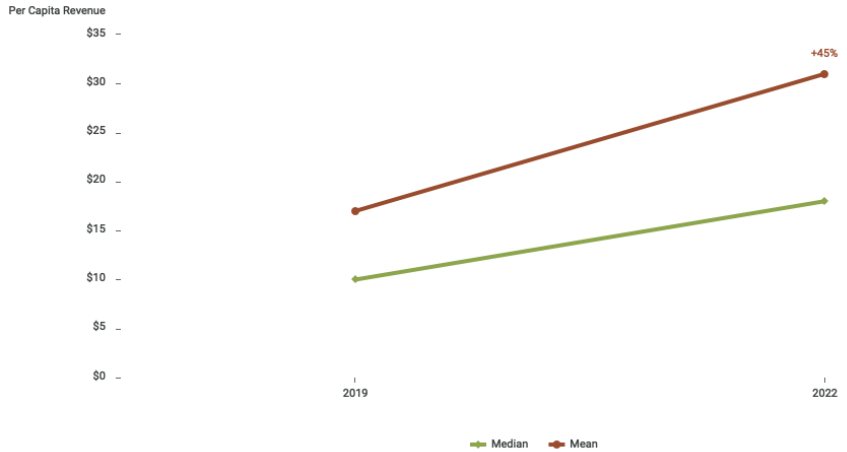

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Revenue Increases

Average per capita revenues from federal sources nearly doubled from 2019 to 2022.

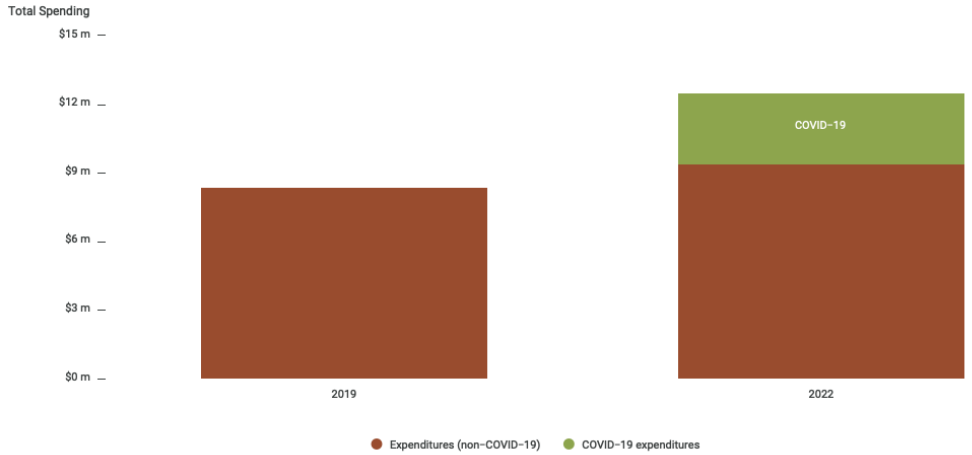

Nearly one in five LHDs foresaw budget cuts as federal resources expire.

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Expenditures

LHDs spent an average of $12.5 million in 2022, with most of the $4.12 million increase due to COVID-19.

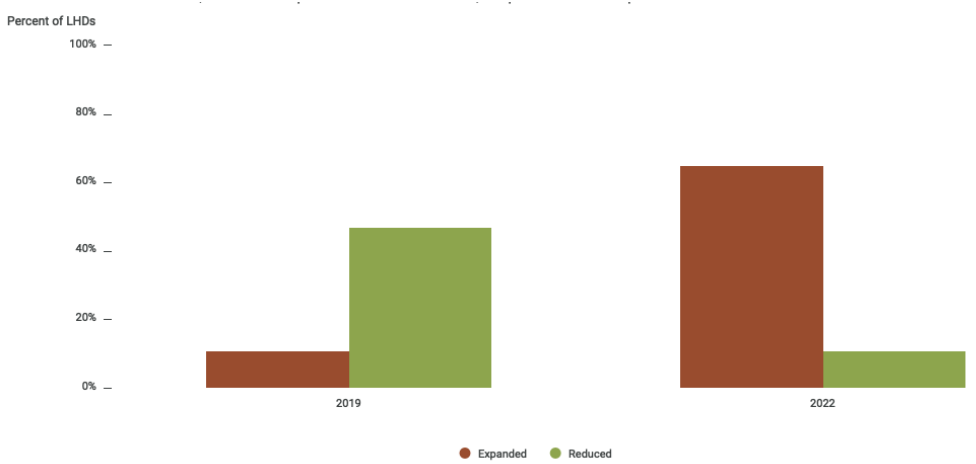

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Immunization Services

LHDs expanded immunization services in 2022 following prior decreases.

In 2022, 65% of LHDs expanded immunization services.

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Policy Engagement

Over 80% of LHDs were involved in policy activities addressing COVID-19 emergency preparedness/response and infectious disease.

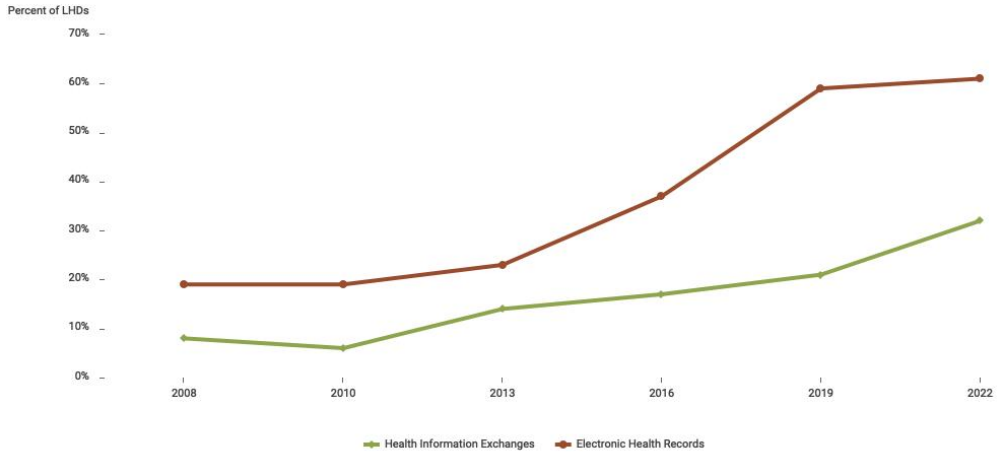

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Informatics

Implementation of electronic health records increased by 42 percentage points between 2008 and 2022.

Participation in health information exchanges increased 24 percentage points over the same period.

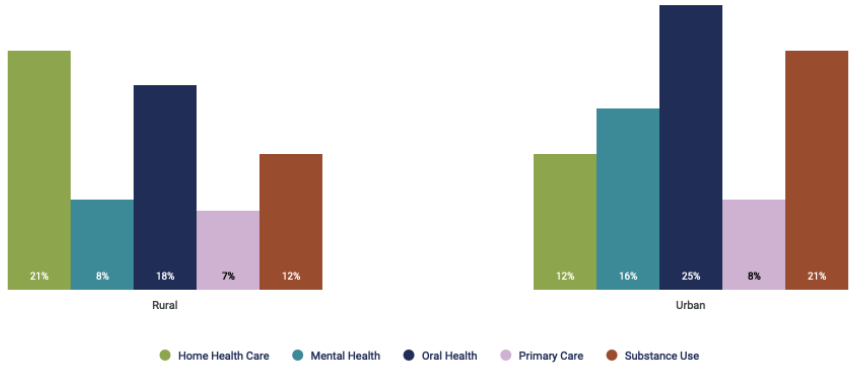

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Clinical Services

Provision of direct clinical services varies across rural and urban LHDs.

In general, fewer rural LHDs provide direct clinical services.

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials

Executive Tenure

Top executives are slightly younger and less tenured now than in 2008.

In 2022, 42% of LHDs had a top executive younger than 50, compared to 34% in 2008.

NACCHO
National Association of County & City Health Officials